The Chamber reserves the right, in its discretion, to select the material which will be published in the Connections newsletter. Because material may be submitted about many subjects from a wide variety of sources, the Chamber cannot be responsible for the accuracy of materials submitted, which is the sole responsibility of the submitting writer. Material published does not necessarily reflect the opinion of the Chamber or any member. Those who submit material are responsible for its content and agree to indemnify and hold the Chamber, the layout artist, and the printer free from any loss, liability, or damage resulting from its publication. In order for advertisements to appear in the Newsletter, all payments must be submitted before the Newsletter is printed.

I,_____, agree to the terms and conditions as stated on the advertising agreement form, and authorize the above schedule and rate of advertising in the Connections Newsletter.
