Great prizes to be won at 14th Annual Kula Kaiapuni Golf Tournament
Benefiting Maui’s Hawaiian Language Immersion School

WAIIEHU, MAUI, HAWAII—On Saturday, February 20, 2010, Nā Leo Kāko'o O Maui, Inc. will host its 14th Annual Kula Kaiapuni Golf Tournament benefiting Kula Kaiapuni O Maui, Hawaiian Language Immersion School at the Waiehu Municipal Golf Course. Make a difference in the future of our students—Maui’s future stewards—individuals who possess a strong sense of place, and a sense of self, that embodies Hawaiian language, thinking, and culture.

According to event organizer Carole Vida, “by popular demand, we are pleased to announce the return of a 2-man scramble team play format this year. We are also happy to partner again with radio stations KPOA 93.5 FM and ESPN/KMVI AM 550. Radio personalities from both stations will host a contest leading up to the golf tournament and four lucky golfers will win a spot to play in the tournament.”

Golfers who submit applications before February 13 will be entered in a drawing for a Las Vegas trip for two that includes airfare and meals. On the course, golfers can vie for a chance at hole-in-one prizes. All registered golfers are also entered in a drawing for a million dollar hole-in-one shot.

Play begins with a shotgun start at 7:00 a.m. Tournament fee is $90 per golfer. A luncheon and award ceremony will be held immediately following play at the Sand Trap Clubhouse.

To register or arrange for a corporate sponsorship, call event co-chairs, Carole Vida at 357.0091 or Laurie Ah Sau at 244.1391.

Nā Leo Kāko'o o Maui is the nonprofit organization incorporated in 1989, supporting Kula Kaiapuni at three locations, with grades K-5 at Pā'ia elementary school, grades 6-8 at Kalama intermediate, and grades 9-12 at Kekaulike high school. Through various fundraisers throughout the year, our nonprofit organization provides students with Hawaiian language books, culturally enriched field trips, and other basic program needs.

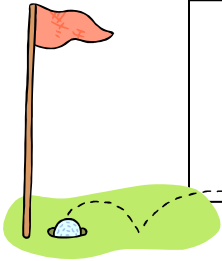

The tournament is our major annual fundraiser and is supported by some 100 volunteers—mostly Kaiapuni families—who provide “in-kind” donations ranging from soliciting prizes for golfers, to marshalling on the course, to preparing the hall for the tournament banquet. More than fifty Maui businesses also lend support.
